A CARNIVAL OF THE ARTS

Bem vindo! Bienvenida! Welcome to FlipSide 2015.

We're spreading our wings this year to embrace writers and performers from Brazil, Mexico and Angola, plus Argentina (tango!) and Cuba (salsa!).

Literary stars from many parts of the UK will join our overseas visitors in a stimulating range of encounters, while musical, literary and artistic workshops will offer plenty of audience participation. Our children's programme has also been expanded, with an exciting variety of events for all ages. Free art exhibitions, non-stop music and dance and enticing food and drink will fill the Big Top tent all weekend.

Take another walk on the FlipSide!

MISHA GLENNY: NEMESIS

Acclaimed journalist and historian Misha Glenny returns to FlipSide to talk about his latest book, Nemesis – a gripping study of organised crime in Brazil, offering unprecedented glimpses into the motivations of one of the country's most wanted criminals, and of the man tasked with bringing him to justice.

FS2 11.30–12.30 Britten Studio

FLIPSIDE ENCOUNTER 1: A MEETING OF MINDS

Joanna Trollope, one of the UK's best-loved and most prolific novelists, meets Fernanda Torres, the celebrated Brazilian stage and screen actor, who has proved to be just as gifted at writing fiction with her debut novel The End. See them together at FlipSide in an unforgettable meeting of minds.

FS3 13.00–14.00 Britten Studio

FLIPSIDE ENCOUNTER 2: JULIA BLACKBURN, ESTHER FREUD, CHLOE ARIDJIS

Meditations on art, beauty and memory feature in the latest books by three outstanding authors. Esther Freud's Mr Mac and Me offers glimpses of Charles Rennie Mackintosh as he settles in a village by the Suffolk coast. In Threads, Julia Blackburn embarks on a personal exploration of the life and work of Norfolk fisherman-turned-artist John Craske. Asunder, by UK-based Mexican novelist Chloe Aridjis, ponders the stories that lie beneath a painting's surface.
